

Western New York PEACE CAMP: vulnerability and hope

Where: Greece Baptist Church – 1230 Long Pond Rd., Rochester, NY 14626

When: Friday 9/8 (Registration 5-6:00PM) until Saturday 9/9 (approx. 4:00PM)

What: Inspirational worship and music, plus featured speakers:

Dr. Marvin McMickle, President of Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School (Fri 7:00)

Rev. LeDayne McLeese Polaski, Executive Director of Baptist Peace Fellowship of North America (Sat 3:00)

Workshops: There will be four workshops, on these themes:

Racial Justice—led by LeDayne McLeese Polaski

Serving at-risk populations—led by Joy Bergfalk

Ministry to the aging—led by Nicole Iaquinto and Wendy DeMott Fambro

Ministering in a politically divided time—led by Alan Newton and Steve Gretz

Worship: Worship will be led by Michael Ware. Music will be provided by Peace Camp Alumni Leslie Lee and Steve Gretz, Elijah and David Culp, and Peter Carman.

Food: Our meals on Friday and Saturday will be catered by Coffee Connection. Both meals will be gluten free, and vegetarian friendly. (cost is covered by registration fee)

Cost: $32 for adults, $12 for kids (through High School). You can pay by check, or online through paypal. Mail checks to church address above, c/o Marilyn Thrall. Or pay online (see registration form for details). Anyone can attend worship without charge!

Camping: We will offer space to camp on church grounds. Campers will have access to church restrooms (note: we do not have showers) There are hotels nearby—and we can accommodate a few people with local families—let us know if you need a place to stay!