

Professional Development Series

These FREE professional development trainings encompass education, training, and technical assistance for local nonprofit organizations and other community partners.

All professional development series sessions are from 9 am – noon and located at United Way of York County's Conference Room located at 36 Water Street in Kennebunk. Register for each session at VolunteerME.

Contact Cliff Oliver at coliver@buildcommunity.org or 207-985-3359 to learn more.

March 11, 2020: United Way of York County's Eligibility Review Process

Presented by Cliff Oliver, Community Impact Investment Manager, who will walk participants through United Way of York County's (UWYC) Eligibility Review Process - the first step for a nonprofit, health and human service organization interested in seeking financial support for local programs. The Eligibility Review is an organization-focused process developed by UWYC to assure accountability and sound non-profit management practices to our donors and the community at large.

This session is highly recommended for organizations seeking program funding for 2021 programs and for currently-funded organizations that have an upcoming Eligibility Review in 2020-2021.

For more information and to register: http://volunteer.buildcommunity.org/event/detail/?event_id=64734

April 15, 2020: Successfully Engaging Volunteers

Presented by Maggie Cummings, Community Impact Project Manager, who will cover United Way of York County's VolunteerME platform – its volunteer recruitment resource– and other tools for improving volunteer engagement for nonprofits. April is also National Volunteer Month! Learn about ways to recruit, retain, and celebrate your organization's volunteers and share your ideas with others!

For more information and to register: http://volunteer.buildcommunity.org/event/detail/?event_id=64768

July 15, 2020: Creative Fundraising and Grant Writing

Presented by Gabrielle Gallucci, Director of Mission Impact at Spurwink, who will introduce participants to the world of fundraising and grant writing using effective and creative ideas to raise money and support for their organization and its mission. Training will include "real world" examples of fundraising projects and grant examples as well as an overview of United Way of York County's grant request and request for proposal processes.

For more information and to register: http://volunteer.buildcommunity.org/event/detail/?event_id=64769

September 9, 2020: Navigating UWYC's Request for Program (RFP) Process

Presented by Cliff Oliver, Community Impact Investment Manager, who will guide participants through the RFP process timeline and explain the Community Review Team's role in advising UWYC's Board of Directors. Participants will also take a deeper look into the partnership contract process for 2021 funded program awards.

For more information and to register: http://volunteer.buildcommunity.org/event/detail/?event_id=64770

United Way of York County
www.buildcommunity.org