Four-Season Appeal

While summer draws thousands of visitors to coastal Maine each year, there’s plenty to do all year long in the Biddeford & Saco region.

Spring — Farmers markets come alive with the season’s freshest produce, and garden centers are overflowing with plants showcasing the colors of the season. Spring is a time where locals fill restaurant patios to enjoy breakfast and a cup of coffee in the warm sunshine, and bikes, kayaks, and convertibles are pulled from winter storage, ready for a new season of adventure.

Maine’s harvest season is the perfect time to go apple picking, or choose a fresh pumpkin from a local farm. It’s also a great time to check out local fairs and festivals, or take a hike.

Summer — Summer in Maine is magical, with breezy, sunny days and cool, crisp nights. With a picturesque coastline and a relaxed vibe, the Biddeford & Saco area is a welcome vacation alternative to some of the busier towns nearby. Along with beautiful beaches, we have a unique Maine lighthouse experience not to be missed. Wood Island Lighthouse is located on an island just offshore from Biddeford Pool, with boat tours offered in July and August. woodislandlighthouse.org

Fall — With crisp air and brilliant fall foliage, autumn is a beautiful time to be in Maine. The vibrant fall colors against the backdrop of the ocean or a brilliant blue sky is simply breathtaking.

Winter — Snowshoeing, cross-country skiing and ice skating keep both locals and visitors active and outside during the winter months. There are plenty of cozy indoor options for winter fun too. Map out a tour of the local breweries, grab dinner at one of the many local restaurants and then catch a show or a movie.

MORE @ THELYC.COM
Here are just a few historic highlights:

Prior to European arrivals, the Sokokis tribe was predominant in the area (from which the Saco River’s name was derived).

One of the first explorers to visit our coastline was Samuel de Champlain in the early 1600’s.

The area was colonized by the English in the early 1700’s, and called Pepperellborough in honor of leader William Pepperell.

Fishing, farming, and lumbering were the primary industries of note during the 18th century.

After the Revolutionary War, Saco Manufacturing opened on Cutts Island, and soon became the largest cotton mill in America.

Today’s mill landscape is multi-faceted, and recent development in spaces to work, live and enjoy the area have yielded hundreds of new companies and residents alike.

As you might imagine, given its unique location on a river near the ocean, the Biddeford-Saco region is rich in history.

Hiking Trails & Parks

Biddeford and Saco offer a variety of trails and parks that provide amazing opportunities to enjoy the natural beauty of our coastal and wooded landscapes.

Clifford Park - Not far from downtown Biddeford on Pool Street (Route 9), this park features a 1.3 mile dog-friendly and bike-friendly loop through wooded hills studded with large boulders. Ample parking is available.

Timber Point Trail - This picturesque 1.4 mile round-trip hike leads to an old oceanfront mansion and an island that is accessible during low tide. The trail is part of the Rachel Carson National Wildlife Refuge, and is located at the end of Granite Point Road off Route 9 in Biddeford.

East Point Audubon Sanctuary - This short hike in Biddeford Pool provides breathtaking views of rocky shores and Wood Island Lighthouse, and is a favorite of bird-watchers. Located on the left side of Ocean Ave. with limited roadside parking.

Rotary Park - This 72-acre riverside park in Biddeford has something for everyone, with walking trails, sports fields & playgrounds, a beach and a boat launch on the Saco River. Located off Main St. approximately a mile west of downtown.

River Walk - Biddeford and Saco continue to invest in the riverfront, with pedestrian walkways on both sides of the Saco River in the downtown area that provide spectacular views of the waterfalls and allow easy access to nearby shops and destinations.

Eastern Trail - The 29-mile Eastern Trail connects Maine’s southern coast from Kennebunk to South Portland’s lighthouse in Bug Light Park with trails for biking and hiking. In Biddeford, access the trail from Southern Maine Health Care’s parking lot, and in Saco, pick up the trail at Thornton Academy or Mill Brook Business Park. For more information go to easterntrail.org

Saco Heath Preserve - The Saco Heath Preserve is a 1,233-acre preserve off Buxton Road. Managed by The Nature Conservancy, the Heath has one of the largest stands of Atlantic White Cedar in Maine and offers scenic trails ideal for family hikes.

Cascade Falls - On Cascade Road, just a short drive from Route 1 in Saco is a gem of a wooded area with ample parking and trails quickly descending to a majestic view of Cascade Falls.

Horton Woods - This 100-acre Saco wildlife preserve accessible from Buxton Rd. features a 2.4 mile moderately difficult loop trail. It’s used for hiking, mountain biking, and snowshoeing and is accessible year-round. Dogs are allowed on the Horton Woods trail on leash.

Life’s a Beach

The Biddeford and Saco region is home to many beaches that are as beautiful as any beach in Southern Maine — with the added benefit of being less crowded than the typical tourist hotspots.

Biddeford’s beach options include:

Fortunes Rocks Beach – This beach, located on Fortunes Rocks Road, is situated at the Southern end of the roughly two-mile stretch of sandy coastline in Biddeford Pool, and is the local surfing option of choice. Limited on-street parking is available.

Middle Beach – Located at the end of Bridge Road, this beach area has a small parking lot with a wooden walkway to the beach.

Saco’s beach options include:

Camp Ellis – On the north side of the Saco River’s mouth, Camp Ellis has long been a gathering spot for fishermen and sun-seekers alike. Ample parking is available at the Camp Ellis Pier. This beach is the beginning of a seven-mile crescent of sandy coastline that extends north through Old Orchard Beach into Scarborough.

Ferry Beach – A short distance north is the Ferry Beach area, including the State Park and the separate Retreat & Conference Center. These are popular options, with many services and nature trails. Call in advance for information and parking availability.

Bayview Beach & Kinney Shores – The City of Saco manages a small parking lot at the end of Bay View Road and at the Kinney Shores area, both located on Route 9/Seaside Avenue along the Saco coastline. Restrooms and limited parking spots can be found at both locations.

Note: parking and dog access varies with each beach. We recommend contacting each city for details.
From an educational standpoint, we are fortunate to have leading academic institutions. At the secondary school level, both Thornton Academy and Biddeford High School/Biddeford Center of Technology are highly regarded.

For so many reasons, the Biddeford & Saco region is hot and happening. As a result, we’re one of the fastest growing, youngest areas in Maine.

It’s a great place to live - whether you’re young and single, raising a family, or heading toward retirement. You can choose to live downtown close to shops, restaurants and entertainment, in a residential neighborhood for community and space, by the ocean or near parks if you prefer being close to nature. In addition to the cities of Biddeford and Saco, you can also choose to live in one of the more rural and charming towns that complement our greater region, such as Dayton, Lyman, Arundel, Limerick, Waterboro and others.

Schools
From an educational standpoint, we are fortunate to have leading academic institutions. At the secondary school level, both Thornton Academy and Biddeford High School/Biddeford Center of Technology are highly regarded.

Transportation
Biddeford & Saco form the commercial backbone of York County, and as such, there are numerous options for getting around besides driving. Our local tri-city transit organization provides complete bus services throughout the area from their hub at the Saco Train Station. From that station, Amtrak Downeaster rail service is also available to Boston and north through Portland to Brunswick. Local taxicab and limo services are a great option for specific local trip needs. And if you want to travel more sustainably, hop on a bike and use the Eastern Trail.

Biddeford and Saco provide a wide variety of housing options. Whether your family needs an efficiency apartment or loft, a condominium, duplex or free-standing home in a residential neighborhood, the area has plenty to offer.

A Perfect Day

Can’t decide what to do? Here’s our list of recommendations for “A Perfect Day” here in Biddeford-Saco.

First stop: Breakfast! Fuel up for your day at one of our many coffee shops, cafés or bakeries. Grab a breakfast sandwich or a bagel and a cup of locally roasted coffee and plan your day.

Schedule a tour of Biddeford Mills Museum and learn about the rich history of the textile industry on the Saco River, beginning in the mid-1800’s. The two-hour guided walking tours are offered during the summer months. For information on scheduling a tour: biddefordmillsmuseum.org

Enjoy our beautiful Main Streets with a little shopping! Stop in at Trillium in Biddeford or at Whimsical ME in Saco for unique treasures and a wide variety of Maine-made products and gifts.

Follow-up your shopping excursion with lunch at one of the many popular eateries where there’s something delicious for every palate.

After lunch, head out to one of Saco’s nature trails. Check out the Saco Heath Preserve. Just a short drive from downtown on Route 112 (Buxton Road), take a quiet walk along the woodland trail through the pristine, scenic 1,200-acre preserve — truly a breath of fresh air!

Head back toward town, and stop at the Way Way Store, a nostalgic 1920’s–1950’s style general store. You’ll find a classic candy counter, ice cream, antiques, Maine memorabilia and more — a can’t miss for visitors and locals alike.

Grab dinner at one of our many great local restaurants, and then head out to catch the sunset over the Atlantic. Drive out to the village of Biddeford Pool, or head to Camp Ellis in Saco and walk out onto the jetty for a spectacular view and the perfect ending to your “perfect day”. Enjoy!

A Perfect Day
