

The background features a light blue field filled with various digital icons and devices. On the left, there's a laptop displaying a social media profile, a smartphone with a camera app, and a tablet with a magnifying glass over a document. In the center, a laptop shows a webpage, a smartphone displays a camera interface, and a smartwatch shows a heart rate monitor. On the right, a laptop displays a video call with a person, and another laptop shows a bar chart.
