

SCHWARTZ SEMERDJIAN ANNOUNCES NEW NAMED PARTNER, NAME CHANGE

San Diego (June 1, 2020): The law firm of Schwartz Semerdjian is pleased to announce the addition of Sarah Evans as a named partner of the firm, which has changed its name to Schwartz Semerdjian Cauley & Evans (SSCE) effective June 1, 2020.

“The firm’s name change recognizes Sarah’s significant contributions to the firm, our clients, the legal community and community at large,” said SSCE Managing Partner Ross Schwartz. “Sarah is dynamic, engaging and approachable to all who work with her, and we are fortunate to have her in a new leadership role at the firm.”

Evans has been practicing law in San Diego since 2000, primarily working on employment law matters. She regularly works to ensure employer compliance with applicable statutes and regulations, as well as provides insightful guidance to employers on critical issues, including preventing harassment and hostile work environment claims, wage and hourly compliance, and disciplinary actions.

Evans is also a litigation attorney, defending lawsuits and claims filed by individual employees and defending clients in class action cases involving employment and wage issues. She is co-author of the employment law chapter in the first two and the upcoming third edition of “A Practitioner’s Guide to Class Actions,” published by the American Bar Association.

“Sarah is a highly regarded attorney, and we are thrilled to see her role evolve as the firm continues to grow,” said SSCE Founding Partner Dick Semerdjian. “We pride ourselves on diligence not only in law and serving our clients, but in the communities where we live and work, and no one exemplifies that more than Sarah.”

In addition to her work at the firm, Evans has served in leadership roles in the Lawyers Club of San Diego, Border View Family YMCA, and Friends of Balboa Park, among others. She has received numerous accolades over the years, including being named California’s 40th Senate District’s Woman of the Year in 2019, San Diego Business Journal’s “Best of the Bar” multiple times, San Diego Daily Transcript list of “Top Young Attorneys,” and a San Diego Metropolitan Magazine “Top 40 Under 40” honoree.

Evans obtained her Bachelor’s Degree from the University of Southern California, and her Juris Doctor from Notre Dame Law School. She resides in Bonita, CA, with her husband and their two school age sons.

About Schwartz Semerdjian Cauley & Evans LLP

Founded in 1998, Schwartz Semerdjian represents clients across a spectrum of specialized areas to meet the distinct needs of businesses and individuals throughout California, the United States and worldwide through affiliation with the LEGUS International Network of Law Firms. For more information, visit <https://www.schwartzsemerdjian.com/>.