Retreat FAQ's

Q: Will the retreat interfere with sporting events/other extra-curricular activities?

A: Coaches have been notified about the retreat and their players will not be penalized for missing practice/games on Monday, April 13th. Players will be back in time on Tuesday, April 14th to participate in any practices/games or extra-curricular activities.

Q: Will Mass be celebrated on the retreat?

A: Yes, we will have Sunday Mass at Trinity Pines in Cascade.

Q: What will the retreat be like?

A: Our main goal of this retreat is twofold.

1) To reflect on the past four years -and-

2) To prepare for life after BK—all through the lens of the Catholic faith. We will engage in powerful talks and small group discussions, participate in Mass, spend time together in fun games and competitions, campfires and s'mores, music, outdoor hikes and more! It will be different from any other retreat offered at BK.

Q: When is the registration/permission form deadline?

A: The online registration/permission forms must be filled out by Wednesday, April 1st.

Q: How do I register online?

A: Use the QR code on this paper to go to access the online registration/permission form or go to:
<https://www.bk.org/faith-life/retreats/>

Q: Will this retreat count as a school excused absence?

A: Students attending this retreat will receive a school excused absence and the days away from school will not count against them in any way.
