Wine Tasting with Anchor & Hope

A wine tasting with the founders of a start-up wine company out of Rumford, Rhode Island: Anchor & Hope is a modern négociant style winery (translated from French: a négociant is a wine merchant who assembles the produce of smaller growers and winemakers and sells the result under its own name) founded by California native (with German roots) and traveling winemaker, James Davids and Massachusetts born and raised, Marissa Stashenko. They collaborate with small family farms in Germany to make incredible wines focusing on wine regions that are up-and-coming and producing great fruit. The wines ship to them after harvest from the growers, and they care for, age and package them at the winery in Rhode Island. Their mission is to bring high quality, estate grown wines to the Northeast US market in a sustainable way, and at an affordable price.
