I'm writing to express my profound disappointment and anger that CBS—or Bari Weiss, more specifically— made the decision to pull the 60 Minutes Cecot story. I've watched and trusted CBS News for decades, and 60 Minutes has always represented the gold standard of journalistic excellence and integrity. No more. Until I see evidence that CBS is putting unbiased coverage ahead of allegiance to a fascist administration, I will be boycotting your station as well as Paramount Plus. I'll be writing to your advertisers, too, and letting them know that I won't shop with them as long as they buy ad time with you. At this fraught moment in American history we must all draw a line. CBS, sadly, has drawn the wrong one. Your reputation will likely never recover.
