The Lessons

A reading from Ephesians.

From the time I first heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all of the holy ones, I have never stopped thanking God for you and remembering you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Savior Jesus Christ, the God of glory, will give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation, to bring you to a rich knowledge of the Creator.

I pray that God will enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see the hope this call holds for you—the promised glories that God’s holy ones will inherit, and the infinitely great power that is exercised for us who believe.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

Alleluia! Sing to the Lord a New song!
Sing praise in the assembly of the faithful.
Let Israel be glad in its Maker;
let the children of Zion rejoice in their God.
let them sing praise with timbrel and harp.  $\mathcal{R}$

For the Lord loves the people,
and crowns the lowly with salvation.
Let the faithful exult in this honor;
let them sing for joy in their beds—
let the high praise of God be in their throats.  $\mathcal{R}$

Let two-edged swords be in their hands to execute vengeance on the nations and punishment on the people, to bind their rulers with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron,
to carry out their sentence to the letter.
This is the glory of the faithful. Alleluia!  $\mathcal{R}$

The Gospel

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Looking at the disciples, Jesus said: “You who are poor are blessed, for the reign of God is yours. You who hunger now are blessed, for you’ll be filled. You who weep now are blessed, for you’ll laugh. You are blessed when people hate you, when they scorn and insult you and spurn your name as evil because of the Chosen One. On the day they do so, rejoice and be glad: your reward will be great in heaven, for their ancestors treated the prophets the same way.

But woe to you rich, for you are now receiving your comfort in full. Woe to you who are full, for you’ll go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you’ll weep in your grief. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in the same way.

To you who hear me, I say: love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you. When they slap you on one cheek, turn and give them the other; when they take your coat, let them have your shirt as well. Give to all who beg from you. When someone takes what is yours, don’t demand it back. Do to others what you would have them do to you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

Recognizing that our gifts are miracles that enable our ministry, serve our neighbors, and strengthen our community, we gather to offer our intentions, petitions, and thanksgivings to God.

We pray for the world, your greatest miracle. We pray for an end to war and to violence, that you will lead every person and nation along the path of peace. We pray especially for the women and girls of Iran, the people of Ukraine and Russia, and for any caught in the crossfire of conflict. When we give out of our abundance,

There is always more than enough.

We pray for those who are sick in body, in heart, in spirit, especially, Nancy, Bill Scott, Ethel, and those we now name (pause), that you will hold them in your loving arms and give them comfort. Inspire us to be conduits of your healing and comfort. When we give out of our abundance,

There is always more than enough.

We pray for those who have died, especially Duane Norman, Henry Horn, and those we now name (pause). May they forever gather at your table of plenty, sharing their gifts with love and joy. When we give out of our abundance,

There is always more than enough.

We pray for those who make the street their home, for those unable to afford rent this month, for those LGBTQIA teenagers kicked out of their homes; we pray for those living in their cars, for our neighbors seeking safety and shelter. Empower us to see Christ in the face of every person we meet. When we give out of our abundance,

There is always more than enough.

As the crowd that gathered to hear Jesus preach shared two fish and five loaves, they discovered that when their gifts were blessed, they increased and became a blessing to others. We give you thanks for the uncountable miracles and blessings in our lives, which we now name silently or aloud (pause). When we give out of our abundance,

There is always more than enough.

May we, too, reach within ourselves to share our gifts with the world so that our love overflows in a need-filled world. These and all things we ask in the name of Christ.

Amen.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

The Eucharistic Prayer

Please stand, as able.

God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

[Why is it right to give thanks and praise?

Listen, and we will hear.]

Lord of all life, you created the universe, where all living things reflect your glory.

You give us this great and beautiful earth, to discover and to cherish.

You give us sun and moon and star-lit sky, everything that gives us light, light for our eyes, our hearts, our minds.

You made us all, each wonderfully different, to join with the angels and sing your praise:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, —

We thank you, loving God, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live.

Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and blood.

*[Why do we share this bread and wine?
Listen, and we will hear.]*

On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: 'This is my body, given for you. Do this to remember me.' After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: 'This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins.'

So God, with this bread and this cup we celebrate Christ's love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior.

*[How do we follow Jesus Christ?
Listen, and we will hear.]*

Help us, God, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.
AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours, now and
for ever. Amen.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.
The gifts of God for the people of God.

Wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith you are welcome to receive the bread and wine made holy. The minister will dip the bread into the wine and then place it in your hands. If you need gluten-free wafers, please say "gluten free" to the person distributing bread. If you prefer to receive the bread only (and not wine), please say "bread only." Let an usher know if you would like a minister to bring communion to you in your seat.

Communion Music      Swimming to the Other Side

The musical score is written on five staves in 4/4 time. The melody is in the treble clef. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score includes measure numbers 4, 8, 11, and 14. The lyrics are: We are liv-ing 'neath the great Big Dip-per, we are washed by the ver-y same rain We are swim-ming in the stream to-geth - er, some in pow'r and some in pain — We can wor-ship this ground we walk — on, cher-ish-ing the be-ings that we live be - side — Lov-ing spir-its will live for-ev - er, — we're all swim-ming to the oth - er side. —

1. I am alone and I am searching, hungering for answers in my time
I am balanced at the brink of wisdom, I'm impatient to receive a sign
I move forward with my senses open, imperfection it be my crime
In humility I will listen, we're all swimming to the other side
2. On this journey through thoughts and feelings, binding intuition my head my heart
I am gathering the tools together, I'm preparing to do my part
All of those who have come before me, band together and be my guide
Loving lessons that I will follow, we're all swimming to the other side
3. When we get there we'll discover, all of the gifts we've been given to share
Have been with us since life's begining, and we never noticed they were there
We can balance at the brink of wisdom, never recognizing that we've arrived
Loving spirits will live together, we're all swimming to the other side.

Blessings and Celebrations

If you're celebrating a birthday, an anniversary of a wedding or sobriety, or another event, you are invited to come forward for prayer. We hold space to pray for joyous occasions as well as difficult milestones.

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase. Bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand. Comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful. Raise them up if they fall. And in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

Let us pray.

Loving God,
thank you for sharing yourself with us.
Help us to share the love of Christ
everywhere we go.
Amen.

Loving God,
