Opening Acclamation

Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

Glory to God for ever and ever.

There is one Body and one Spirit;

There is one hope in God's call to us;

One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

One God and Father of all.

God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

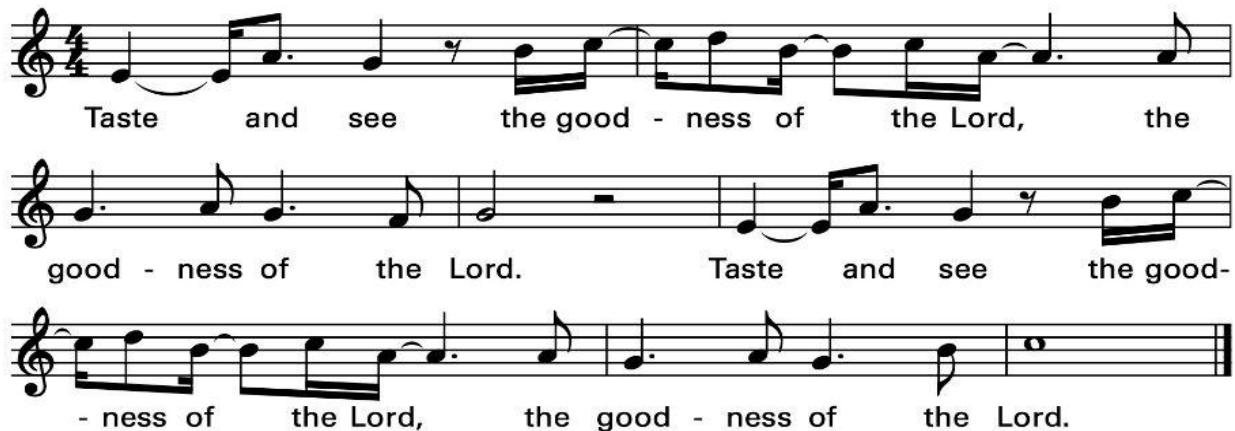

God be in my head,
and in my thinking.
God be in my eyes,
and in my looking.
God be in my ears,
and in my listening.
God be in my mouth,
and in my speaking.
God be in my heart,
and in my understanding.
Amen.

God be in my head,
and in my thinking.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times.

Praise will be on my lips.

My soul will glory in the Lord.

The poor will hear and be glad.

3. The Lord has eyes for justice, ears to hear your cry.

God knows your broken heart.

The Lord redeems a loyal servant.

Take refuge in your God.

2. I sought the Lord who answered me, delivered me from my fear.

Look to God that you might shine with the radiance of God's joy.

The Gospel

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked around and saw lots of people around him. He went up the mountain to talk to them, so they could hear him better. This is what he wanted to teach them:

When you are feeling down and think you're worthless, know that you are blessed. For God's kingdom is yours.

When you are sad because someone has died, know that you are blessed and you will be comforted.

When you feel like you have nothing to offer, know that you are blessed, because you will be given everything.

When you are hungry and thirsty for God, know that you are blessed and that God will fill you up.

When you are kind, even when you don't have to be kind, know that you are blessed. Because God notices and will be kind to you.

When your eyes and hearts are open to God, know that you are blessed, because you will see and feel God.

When you try to bring people together in peace, know that you are blessed, because that's what God's children are supposed to do.

When people make fun of you because you love me, says Jesus, you can be happy about it, because that's exactly what they have done to all of God's people before you.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon The Rev. Mary Lynn Coulson

Presentation of Baptismal Candidates

The Candidate for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

Parents and Godparents: I present Ronan Patrick Jeter to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

Will you be responsible for seeing that the child you present is brought up in the Christian faith and life?

I will, with God's help.

Will you by your prayers and witness help this child to grow into the full stature of Christ?

I will, with God's help.

Do you renounce Satan and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce the evil powers of this world which corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce all sinful desires that draw you from the love of God?

I renounce them.

Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Savior?

I do.

Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love?

I do.

Do you promise to follow and obey him as your Lord?

I do.

Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support this person in his life in Christ?

People We will.

Let us join with those who are committing themselves to Christ and renew our own baptismal covenant.

The Baptismal Covenant

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

I will, with God's help.

Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

I will, with God's help.

Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

I will, with God's help.

Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

I will, with God's help.

Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

I will, with God's help.

Let us now pray for this person who is to receive the Sacrament of new birth.

The Prayers

With the help of the Saints of God, let us pray.

That we, like Andrew, would have the love to come and go when you call, we pray to you, Jesus; Help us to follow.

That we, like Mary, would let you be born in us, and stay close to you all of our lives, we pray to you, Jesus; Help us to follow.

That those who are to be baptized, being built like living stones into your church, would find your help to grow: for Ronan, we pray to you, Jesus; Help us to follow.

That we, like Mary Magdalene, would boldly proclaim your resurrection to the frightened and heart-sick, we pray to you, Jesus; Help us to follow.

That we, like Thomas, would recognize doubt as the seed of true faith, and lead the doubting to touch your love, we pray to you, Jesus; Help us to follow.

That those who have died would grow forever in grace: for Elizabeth Kolton, Florence DeReeder, Aviva Lilia Bernardo Kullberg, and for those we now name (pause), we pray to you, Jesus; Help us to follow.

That we, like Francis, would tenderly care for your precious creation, we pray to you, Jesus; Help us to follow.

A period of silence follows.

The Celebrant says

Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and forever. Amen.

Thanksgiving over the Water

The Celebrant blesses the water, first saying

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, the Celebrant touches the water

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Baptism

Ronan, I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised him to the new life of grace. Sustain him, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give him an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

Then the Celebrant places a hand on the person's head, marking on the forehead the sign of the cross using Chrism and saying Ronan, you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The Peace

The peace of Christ be always with you.

And also with you.

The Eucharistic Prayer

Please stand, as able.

God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

[Why is it right to give thanks and praise?

Listen, and we will hear.]

Lord of all life, you created the universe, where all living things reflect your glory.
 You give us this great and beautiful earth, to discover and to cherish.

You give us sun and moon and star-lit sky, everything that gives us light, light for our eyes, our hearts, our minds.

You made us all, each wonderfully different, to join with the angels and sing your praise:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might.
 Heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san-na, ho - san-na on high. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na on high.

We thank you, loving God, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live.

Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and blood.

*[Why do we share this bread and wine?
 Listen, and we will hear.]*

On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: 'This is my body, given for you. Do this to remember me.' After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: 'This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins.'

So God, with this bread and this cup we celebrate Christ's love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior.

*[How do we follow Jesus Christ?
 Listen, and we will hear.]*

Help us, God, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever.
AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.
The gifts of God for the people of God.

Wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith you are welcome to receive the bread and wine made holy. As you make your way to the front, the station on the left is available if you would like to sip from the common cup. At the station on the right, the minister will dip the bread into the wine and then place it in your hands. If you need gluten-free wafers at either station, please say “gluten free” to the person distributing bread. If you prefer to receive the bread only, please come forward and say “bread only.” Let an usher know if you would like a minister to bring communion to you in your seat.

Communion Music Swimming to the Other Side

We are living 'neath the great Big Dipper, we are washed by the ver-y same rain. We are swim-ming in the stream to-ge-th - er, some in pow'r and some in pain. We can wor-ship this ground we walk on, cher-ish-ing the be - ings that we live be - side. Lov-ing spir - its will live for-ev - er, we're all swim-ming to the oth - er side.

1. I am alone and I am searching, hungering for answers in my time
I am balanced at the brink of wisdom, I'm impatient to receive a sign
I move forward with my senses open, imperfection it be my crime
In humility I will listen, we're all swimming to the other side
2. On this journey through thoughts and feelings, binding intuition my head my heart
I am gathering the tools together, I'm preparing to do my part
All of those who have come before me, band together and be my guide
Loving lessons that I will follow, we're all swimming to the other side
3. When we get there we'll discover, all of the gifts we've been given to share
Have been with us since life's begining, and we never noticed they were there
We can balance at the brink of wisdom, never recognizing that we've arrived Loving spirits will live together, we're all swimming to the other side.
