

January 26–28, 2017 • Grand Rapids, Michigan, USA

The annual Calvin Symposium on Worship is a three-day conference sponsored by the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship and the Center for Excellence in Preaching.

The conference brings together a wide audience of artists, musicians, pastors, scholars, students, worship leaders and planners, and other interested worshipers. People come from around the world for a time of fellowship, worship, and learning together, seeking to develop their gifts, encourage each other and renew their commitment to the full ministry of the church.

On Thursday, January 26, 2017, N. T. Wright will be one of the presenters. Time is 8:30 – 5:15

N.T. (Tom) Wright is a leading British New Testament scholar and retired Anglican bishop. Following his tenure as the Bishop of Durham (2003-2010), he serves as research professor of New Testament at the University of St. Andrews. He is the author of numerous books, including the *The Case for the Psalms*, which was developed out of work he presented at the 2012 Calvin Worship Symposium, and his forthcoming book, *The Day the Revolution Began: Reconsidering the Meaning of Jesus's Crucifixion*.

- Plenary Address: Public Worship as Sign and Means of New Creation
- Seminar A11: Surprised by Scripture: Faithful Christian Engagement with the Cultural, Philosophical, Religious and Political Worlds
- Seminar B4: How Churches Around the World Pray for Churches Around the World
- Workshop A22: Conversation on Public Worship as Sign and Means of New Creation
