HANDBELL FESTIVAL

FEBRUARY
18 - 19

MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
1310 ASHMAN ST
MIDLAND MI 48640

Handbell ringers from several of Midland's churches are joining together for the 2017 Handbell Festival. We are honored to have Janet Van Valey, professional composer and handbell clinician, as conductor.

The fun begins on Saturday, February 18, with a day of rehearsals that will prepare them for the festival's concluding concert on Sunday, February 19, at 4:00 p.m.

Festival participants will ring three pieces of Ms. Van Valey's selection. Individual bell choirs from the represented churches will complete the Sunday afternoon concert program by adding a piece from their own repertoire.

The festival rehearsals and concert occur at MPC in Mayton Hall, located at 1310 Ashman Street in Midland, and are free and open to the public.
