

LCCOC ELECTION FORUM MEETING NOTICE

Wednesday, October 16, 2019

6:30 p.m. @ the Library

Before marking that November 5th ballot, the public is invited to participate in an informal informational Election Forum, Wednesday, October 16, 6:30 p.m. at the Sterling Public Library. This is an opportunity to meet Sterling City Council candidates, new RE #1 Valley Board of Education directors; and, spend some time learning more about City and State ballot initiatives.

On the Agenda –

- Sterling City Council candidates: Mayor – Dave Appelhans, Ward I – Mike Anderson, Ward II – Mandy Ritter vs. Ryan Virgil, Ward III – Kelly Blecha vs. Luke Janes.
- RE #1 Valley Board of Education - new board members: District 2- Ronda Monheiser, District 3 - Jodene Boerner, District 7 - Jill Brownell.

All candidates and new board members are invited to attend and speak.

Ballot Question 2F – City of Sterling proposed wastewater bond – City Manager Don Saling

State Ballot Issues: Colorado Fiscal Institute

- Proposition CC – would require any money the state government keeps over its existing revenue limit be spent for public schools, higher education and transportation projects rather than refunded to taxpayers.
- Proposition DD – Legalization and taxation of sports betting to fund water projects and obligations.

Anyone wishing to speak for or against the ballot initiatives are welcome speak. If you would like to be on the Agenda; or, additional information please call 970-520-9412.

This Election Forum is presented through a partnership between the Logan County Citizens' Oversight Committee and the Logan County Chamber of Commerce.