Deerskins into Buckskins How to Tan with Natural Materials

$14.95

$14.95
+ tax

All kinds of people enjoy making and wearing their own buckskin and so can you, with this easy to use guide. Over 130 photos and illustrations bring you step by step from raw skin to velvety soft buckskin and then show you how to create beautiful garments and useful goods. Design to be easily understood by the beginner yet rich with detail for the experienced, this book teaches tanning as a natural process. No chemicals are needed. All the tools and materials are waiting around your home and land. While the tools are simple, having a great method is the key. This book has that method.

Bushels of Nostalgia

$12.99

Through a collection of short stories, take a nostalgic trip back to the late 50s, 60s and early 70s with a farm family of twelve. Share their simple life experiences as they buy their first black-and-white television set; enjoy shopping downtown with them where parking meters must be fed; see their behind-the-scenes view of a full-service gas station and find out how they kept Sundays special. While no two families lived exactly alike in those decades, plenty of common threads did exist.

$12.99
+ tax

Depression Visible: The Ragged Edge

$21.95

$21.95
+ tax

"This is the first book that SHOWS what depressive illness feels like."

- See the Ragged Edge series of original art quilts which were shown in the National Museum of Health and Medicine in Washington, D.C.
- Written in everyday language — no medical jargon.
- Learn about causes, symptoms, and treatments.
- Discover the many facets of depression beyond the physical (biochemical) and the emotional.
- Find out how to navigate the medical establishment and how to communicate effectively with your doctor.
