

CLASS OF 2019 ORIENTATION

#bestclassever

On a beautiful day in September, 19 new friends and classmates met at the Presbyterian Event and Retreat Center for the start of an incredible journey. They heard from community leaders and LC Alumni Michelle Barber, Stephanie DiVito, Guy Cosentino as well as resident Meyers Briggs aficionado Denise Pellegrino. The PERC was a gracious host allowing us the use of the first floor, cooking breakfast AND lunch for us as well as a coveted tour of the ENTIRE building, including the pool area.

COUNTY BUS TOUR

We covered a lot of ground on this year's bus tour, pun intended! It was again a rainy day but it didn't stop us from visiting St Mathews Church in Moravia, Treleaven Wines, Howland Stone Store Museum and Oakwood Farms. On our way North we stopped at Piccadilly Square eatery in Cato who blessed us with 4 different kinds of mayo as well as homemade mac n' cheese. After our bellies were full we continued to the Sterling Nature Center, Fly By Night Cookie Company and a fascinating tour of the Port Byron Old Erie Canal Heritage Park.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Since this year's Economic Development luncheon will be focused on the Arts as Economic Development driver we thought the Schweinfurth Museum was an excellent location for class and it did not disappoint. The class heard from Andrew Fish '10 as well as Meg Vanek, Ann Kubarek, Renee Jensen '17, Tracy Verrier '15, Jim Dacey '89, and Derek Simmonds '19. We also were given a first hand look into the vision of the Schweinfurth Museum as well as a tour of the Cayuga Museum next door.

HUMAN SERVICES

For this year's Human Services session we wanted to give the class an up-close look at some of the organizations in our community. To do that we had the class volunteer with Habitat for Humanity, Hospice of the Fingerlakes Thrift Store and Chapel House. This class embraced the opportunity and got right to work! In the afternoon we heard from Lori Shakow of Childcare Solutions of CNY, Ryan Morell of Cayuga Counseling, Jay DeWispelaere - Cayuga County Probation Department. We were hosted by Two Plus Four Management and received an in-depth look at what Unity House is and does by alumni Kelly Buck '05.
