Why should you attend?

Networking with Peers:

Competitors from other regions of Virginia can be valuable resources for referrals and best-practices. Collaboration is the way to approach networking. Uncover ideas and spark inspiration when you get to know people on a personal level.

Encounter New Vendors and Suppliers

Discovering innovative products and services for your business is necessary to stay competitive in today's fast-paced world. Industry suppliers are some of the best people for you to get to know if you want to learn more about the current business climate. Vendors who sell to your industry fully grasp what is happening inside your competition. Invest time with the sponsors and turn them into your friends and allies.

Have FUN!

Being in the building business should be rewarding and fun. All work and no play can get old fast. The HBAV Annual Conference adds a layer of enjoyment to managing your career growth by mixing a social aspect into your learning and industry branding efforts. This year's event includes fun activities such as a beach party and golf. Never underestimate the power of a little fun mixed with some interesting people!

Position Yourself as an Industry Leader

When you are active in your industry, you develop a reputation as a leader and expert to your peers and clients. Like it or not, others like to associate with the experts in any industry. Clients feel good about doing business with those that are celebrated by their peers. If your strategy is to be the best-kept secret in your business community, you will be missing a valuable opportunity.

Up to date Industry Information

No matter how experienced you are at your business, everyone can learn. The annual conference will expose you to new legislation that may affect your business in the near future.

Staying up to date on this issues will allow your business to plan and position yourself for
