

Grand Canyon Emergency Evacuation Checklist

Essential Items

Medications, dentures, hearing aids and prescription glasses/contact lenses

Important papers (birth certificates, insurance policies, etc.) if immediately available

Driver's license, passport, and other identification

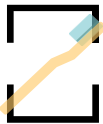

Baby food and diapers

Checkbook, credit cards, cash

Pets and pet food, medication, leash or carrier

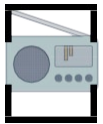

Personal toilet articles and sanitary needs

Sleeping bags or blankets

Flashlight and extra batteries

Portable battery-powered radio

Change of clothing for each person

Drinking water and non-perishable, ready-to-eat food

Cell phone and charging cable

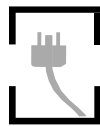

Valuables

Irreplaceable items and personal mementos

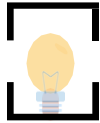

Essential Actions

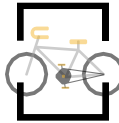

Disconnect all appliances except the refrigerator and freezer

Close and lock all doors and windows

Leave exterior porch lights on

Secure outdoor possessions and equipment

Secure or hide valuables

Turn off the gas before leaving-know how to do this well in advance

Tie a white or light-colored pillowcase, towel, or similar item to the front door to indicate the residence has been evacuated

Follow instructions of emergency personnel

Register at the designated evacuation collection center (locations will be announced during evacuation)

Emergency Notifications

<http://coconino.az.gov/ready>

Recorded information: 928-638-7688

Grand Canyon Regional Communications Center: 928-638-7805

Grand Canyon Regional Communications Center emergency line: 911

Emergency radio broadcasts:
KAFF 930 AM and 92.9 FM
KNAU 903. FM and 88.7 FM
NOAA weather radio