

Models of Older Adult Ministry

A three-hour continuing education Zoom Conference

Monday, September 21, 2020, 1:30 – 4:30pm

Designed for congregational leaders, clergy, and regional ministers, this conference focuses on best practices to improve how we respond to older members of our communities. Three leaders will share their varying approaches, lessons learned, and resources to better address the spiritual needs of aging congregants in a panel discussion, followed by an interactive group exercise.

Panelists

Rev. Todd Leonard, M.Div., Senior Pastor, Glendale City Church in Glendale, and co-founder of the congregation's Seniors Academy.

Rev. Steve Herder, M.Div., Associate Pastor at Ascension Lutheran Church in Thousand Oaks, leads the congregation's comprehensive Senior Adult Ministries (SAM) Team, which both engages and serves nearly 380 older adult members.

Cindy Wright, MA, serves as the Minister of Care and Mature Adults at Solana Beach Presbyterian Church, a position she's enjoyed for the past 31 years. She finds great joy in loving and serving God's oldest children in church and community.

Moderator: Dr. Cordula Dick-Muehlke, Ph.D. is a consultant in aging and dementia and licensed psychologist who co-director of the Spirituality and Aging Certificate Program sponsored by New Theological Seminary of the West.

Sponsors

Pacifica Synod – ELCA
Office of the Bishop

Presbyterian Older Adult Ministries Network

Registration at www.ntswest.org

$20.00 Registration ($25.00 after September 14th) $80.00 Groups of 5 or more