

Co-Creating The Post-COVID World

- The world is different
- Leaders and congregations need to adapt and discern what the Spirit is doing
- Collaboration is crucial
- Developing life-giving patterns of ministry and ways of engaging our communities

Join a conversation about the role of the church in the transformation of our communities.

One of the goals of the Thriving Leadership Formation program is to equip church leaders to creatively respond to the needs of their communities by connecting more deeply with their ministry context.
