

Meli Harmon is a Peer Specialist with the HOPE Project in Abode Services. She uses her lived experience of a long history of international displacement, homelessness, and being raised by people with serious mental health issues (along with thriving beyond her own diagnoses), in order to outreach to and serve the chronically homeless population of the Bay Area, in Alameda County.

