

The Goshen Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce we have a new Executive Director. Regina Clark, CSP has accepted the position and will start her duties immediately. Regina will approach her new position with integrity and professionalism and will help our members achieve their business goals.

A graduate of SUNY Binghamton, Regina is a Certified Speaking Professional. Having owned and operated a management and development consulting business, Creative Performance Solutions, LLC, which offered executive coaching, keynote speaking, and corporate training;

Regina's experience will be a huge asset to our chamber. Over the years Regina has spoken in forty states and five countries. She has authored four books, Developing Process Improvement Leaders, WOW Your Customer Or Somebody Else Will, PIVOT Principles, and 101 Ways To Improve The Patient Experience. During her career Regina has worked with a diverse group of clients including Johnson & Johnson, NFL Films, Orange Bank and Trust, Westchester Medical Center, Lockheed Martin and many others. Regina has also delivered programs for Leadership Orange, Mid-Hudson SHRM, Goshen Central High School, and other local organizations. Her resume is long and impressive with her experience in Management Development, Recruitment Training, and more. Regina's vast knowledge of managing a business makes her the perfect person for this position with the chamber.

Regina is a native New Yorker and moved to Goshen thirty years ago when she accepted a position with Meldisco in Mahwah, New Jersey. After working there for five years, Regina started her company Creative Performance Solutions, LLC. With her supportive husband by her side, Regina built a successful company while the couple raised their three children. Through her years of living in Goshen, Regina met many Goshen residents and grew to love her town and the people in it. She has lent a hand in her community when needed and is a person people can depend on. Regina has accepted this position with the Chamber because she wants to support local business owners as they move forward in this changing environment.

We welcome Regina with enthusiasm and are excited to see how she will use her outgoing, friendly personality and vast knowledge in business management to help our chamber and members soar to new heights.
