Dear Parents,

This short week went really smoothy. The numbers were at their very low, some children were sick, other enjoying time off. But this did not prevent us to be really busy!

In order to be super ready for the eggs hunt, we practiced picking up toys and putting them in a basket. They did a great job at clean-up time!

For Circle Time, we sang "Little Bunny Foo Foo" and did the finger play ("Here is a bunny").

For Art, the children decorated their bags by gluing eggs shapes and a cut-out bunny they colored with Do A Dot Markers. They also colored construction paper with green crayons and glued bunnies and eggs.

It was great to see some of the parents at our egg hunt event, even if it was for a short moment! Don't forget to supervise your child when they open their eggs, some toys may not be age-appropriate.

Have a great long weekend. Happy Easter!
