Dear Parents,

This week's theme was introducing Easter and involving bunnies and eggs. During our Circle Time, we sang, danced, and moved our bodies to the rhythm of Good Morning, The Wheels of the Bus, Hello Hello, Freeze Song, and Five Little Bunnies. During Story Time, We read Clifford the Big Red Dog and The Big Egg Hunt. During art, the children decorated a white paper bag using Colorful Dotters to inspire their fine motor skills; they made the cutest Easter bag ever. For gross motor skills, the children hopped like a bunny, threw balls, kicked the balls, and hopped in place. On Wednesday, we had our Spring Egg Hunt! The children enjoyed finding their eggs. They were so excited about it. Thank you, parents, for coming; we appreciate these moments . I sent you pictures through Brightwheel.

Please, wash your child's blanket and return it nice and clean on Monday with extra clean clothes.

Have a great long weekend!
