Dear Red Door Parents!

This week's theme is Hispanic heritage!

Circle Time/Music: "buenos días, los pollitos dicen pío pío pío, Juanito cuando baila, al tambor a mi burro, le duele la patita, la vaca lola, la pequeña araña".

Then we had an awesome time with Miss Clarice, our music teacher, as we danced and sang along with the guitar and piano. We heard a story "Pete the Cat" and used shakers!

Storytime: "How are you? cómo estás? I'm hungry! Tengo hambre! Daddy and me/papi y yo, hola granja! Hello farm, estrellita, Fonda estas?"

Art/small group: On Monday we used cardboard blocks to stack and build a tower together! Tuesday and Wednesday we decorated a "sombrero"; we tore pieces of paper and colors then glued it onto our hat! Thursday we sorted our colors with red and blue objects with help from the teachers. Friday we had fun with Play-Doh!!

Playground: the children love to crawl through the tunnel, swing on the swings, say hello to the tortoises, ride their tricycles and kick the ball!

Have an amazing weekend!!
