Dear Parents of Blue Door,

Hello 🌟 This week in Blue Door the theme was Friends. During Circle Time the teacher talked about different ways we can be nice friends. Some of the ways are by sharing, not hitting, playing nicely with one another and when talking to our friends we use our inside voice and no screaming. Most importantly our hands are for being nice and hugging one another and not hitting.

For Art, the children drew a picture of themselves and a friend from class. Our friendship will bloom art activity was a blast. The children got their hands painted and chose a friend whom they would like to do their art activity with. Both children's handprints were painted and put onto construction paper with their friend's name. This art activity was called Our Friendship is Blooming. Do-a-Dot markers are always fun to work with. The children loved picking the different colors and using the Do-a-Dot markers on construction paper.

For story time the children listened to these stories: The Very Hungry Caterpillar, Eight Silly Monkeys Jumping on the Bed, Hands Are Not for Hitting, Pete the Cat, I Love My White Shoes, and Hands Are Not For Hitting.

The Thanksgiving feast was great. All the food was so yummy. Thank you once again to all the parents. The children enjoyed their feast very much.

Blue door teachers are very grateful for each child that is in blue door. We thank you parents as well for trusting us with your child. It is always a pleasure. Thank you all 🤝❤️🤝

Parents, please wash your child's blanket and return it to school nice and clean. Please put your child's name on everything that may belong to him or her. Please make sure their nails are cut short. That way they don't scratch themselves or their friends.

🤝 Have a great weekend 🤝
