Dear Parents of Red Door,

This week was all about Mother's Day! The children made special gifts and projects for their mother.

In center time, the children had the chance to explore all of the developmental areas such as library, table tops, discovery, dramatic play, music and sensory except during lunch and nap time.

For Story time, the children read Llama Llama Mad at Mama, Llama Llama Misses Mama, No More Diaper for Ducky, Hands Are Not for Hitting, and Llama Llama Red Pajama.

During art, the children made a poem card for mommy using pink construction paper, glue, multicolor do a dots markers, and a print out of a special poem. The children made a flower using a green do a dot marker, yellow, blue, purple, orange, and pink paint, square confetti and glue. Lastly, the children worked on their journals.

For Circle Time /Music & Movement, the children sang and danced to Rainbow Colors, Five Little Fish, One Two Buckle My Shoe, Cucú, Bingo, and The Wheels on the Bus. We talked about how much we love our mother and the meaning of Mother's Day.

For Gross Motor, the children played Red Light Green Light, Stomp the Bubbles, running in the playground, throwing a ball with a friend and hopping like a frog.

Friendly reminders to parents : Please remember to keep your child's nails short as to not scratch our friends while playing. If your child naps at school please take home their pillow and blanket every Friday and bring it back fresh and clean on Monday. Thank You !
