Green Door

Dear Parents,

We have completed this second week doing more adorable and spooky Halloween art projects that we have displayed around the classroom. We also focused on the color orange and the words pumpkin and Jack O Lantern.

The highlight of this week was of course our Halloween Activities that took place on Thursday. We had a lot of fun with our Piglet, Snow White, Lilo and Stitch, Lion, Batman, Dragon, the Cat in the Hat, Pumpkin and Doctor. They were all so cute with their two spooky Witches (Mrs. Zamira in orange and Mrs. Murielle in black) and Bumble Bee (Ms. Lauren) teachers!

For Art, the children colored a pumpkin shape with do a dot markers and then pasted black shapes to make a Jack O Lantern. They decorated a bag with stickers for our trick or treat parade. Finally, they made hand prints to make ghosts.

Circle time was dedicated to Pumpkins: we sang "I'm a little pumpkin" and, they listen to the finger play "5 little pumpkins sitting on a gate".

During Playground time, the children were for great treat: the Bubble Machine: they enjoyed looking at the numerous bubbles flying in the air and tried to pop them.

A big thank you to Arzu (Snow White) who brought for all her friends a little pumpkin trinket.

Quote of the week: Some people are born for Halloween, and some are just counting the days until Christmas. Stephen Graham Jones

Have a BOOtiful weekend!

Red Door

Dear Parents,

We have completed this second week doing more adorable and spooky Halloween art projects that we have displayed around the classroom.

This week we focused on the color orange and the word Pumpkin. During art time the children painted a pumpkin mixing red and yellow paint which made the orange. They also used orange crayons and construction paper to paint another pumpkin. They decorated a bag for the Halloween Parade which they used on Thursday.

This week they really liked the books called: "The Itsy, Bitsy, Pumpkin", and "Pumpkin Patch Puppy".

Circle time was great. The children sat in a circle and loved to participate as we sang the "Good Morning" song. They took turns shaking the maracas and passing them to each other.

During music with Ms. Clarice, the children listened to the story of "The 5 Little Pumpkins Sitting On A Gate", and they enjoyed the music.

Our Halloween activity was a success. The children enjoyed it a lot while wearing their different costumes. It was a lot of fun.

Have a wonderful weekend and Happy Halloween!

Ms. Mireya and Mrs. Madelayne
