Dear Parents of VPK,

What a great start to Summer Camp. We would like to welcome you to the East Wing. This week the children have been spending time getting to know their new teachers and classmates. Also, this week our topic was Father's Day and our students have been thinking about their fathers, grandfathers, and uncles.

During Art time, the children drew a picture of themselves and their dads or that special someone in their lives. They decorated the word "DAD" using sticker letters. They made a photo frame and a colored in a tie. We hope you enjoyed the " Donuts with Dad" event and all the projects they worked so hard on.

Next week, our students will begin their passport to fun. Our first adventure will be to Africa to learn about the beautiful counties there. We will be traveling around the world on airplanes, cruise ships, trains, and cars.

Books we read this week:

A Perfect Father's Day

I Love My Daddy

This week our students (the ones who signed up) had karate on Tuesday and Thursday. They enjoyed it a lot. If you are interested in having your child take the class, there is still time to register them. You can contact the main office for more information. We also have music class on Fridays.

On Thursday, we had an in-house field trip from Miami Children's Museum. The theme was a musical story time and the kids had a blast. The children listened to four different stories with sound effects of musical instruments like drums.

REMINDERS:

* If your child arrives before 9, they can be dropped off at the playground. At 9 am we line up to walk to the classrooms. Students arriving after 9 will have to be dropped off in the office, and someone will bring them over to the class.

* Please make sure your child has extra clothes (shirts, pants or shorts, underwear, and socks) in the class to change in case of an accident.

Quote of the week:

"Dads are most ordinary men turned by love into heroes, adventurers, story-tellers, and singers of song." Pam Brown
