Hello Parents of Silver Door,

Well, this will be the last weekly newsletter of the school year. It has been an honor being your kids' teacher. I am going to miss you all so much.

Reminder that next week is the last week of school. Because of that, it will be Spirit Week.

*On Monday is Disney Day

*On Tuesday is Sports Jersey Day

*On Wednesday is Cozy Pajama Day

*On Thursday is our Graduation ceremony at 11:30am

*Friday the School is CLOSED to prepare for summer camp

In Language Arts and Reading, it was our last review week. This week we reviewed the long vowel sound for a, e, i, o, and u. Then we went over concepts that we learned throughout First Grade such as: rhyming, common nouns, proper nouns, contractions, and pronouns. For our stories we read A Letter from Your Teacher and Hooray for You.

In Math, we went over two topics that they will learn in Second Grade which are Time and Money. They learned how to tell time to the hour and to the half hour. Then we went over the coins: penny, nickel, dime, and quarter. We discussed how much each coin is worth and learned how to count a group of coins to figure out the total. On Friday we did a store activity, where each student went up to Ms. Sammy's desk and purchased prizes with the money they earned throughout the week.

We had no Science this week. Instead, we spent part of the day practicing our song and dance for Graduation. We can't wait for you all to see!!

"If you're brave enough to say goodbye, life will reward you with a new hello." – Paulo Coelho

Have a fabulous weekend!!!
