Dear Parents,

We had a really WILD week and I am not talking about your adorable children's behavior but about our theme "Wild Animals". Throughout the week, we had a lot of fun imitating the animals sounds: the tigers, the elephants, the bears, the snakes, the crocodiles, the monkeys, etc.

We read a lot of books about the jungle and zoo animals; their favorite one was "Rumble in the Jungle".

For art, we made a jungle scene coloring a paper in green and making animal handprints on it. They also painted a carton plate grey mixing black and white paint to make an elephant.

For Music and Movement, we had a lot of fun moving like the wild animals: we slithered like a snake, hopped like a kangaroo, galloped like a zebra, and swung like a monkey.

Our training for drinking from a cup is going very well. Everybody is doing very well and we have less and less spilling!

Quote of the week: They are wild animals that live in your house - that's the only way to describe a toddler. _Dawn O'Porter

Have a great long weekend (we are closed on Monday for Memorial Day).
