Dear Parents of VPK Students,

The topic of the week was Easter and letter Aa.

We learned all about spring and made so many Easter-themed crafts! We made Easter cards and bunny headbands.

Journals: The children learned about the letter A and its two sounds. We wrote sentences using A words and stenciled and colored the letter.

Wednesday was our Spring Egg Hunt day. Thank you to all the parents who offered to help with the egg hunt. The children were very excited to go to the playground to find all those colorful eggs. When we went back to class, they counted all their eggs. They also sorted the eggs by color and compared which color had more and which one had less. We posted pictures on Brightwheel and hope you enjoyed them.

Books we read:

It's Not Easy Being a Bunny

Hippity Skippity Easter

Happy Easter Little Critter.

The Runaway Bunny.

The Night Before Easter

The Golden Egg Book.

Things to do with your children at home:

The following are some verbal games, that are good to use with your children in the car or while doing errands. Please try it with your child and adapt accordingly to the situation. These games will help them develop a more extensive vocabulary, and at the same time, they will learn to follow directions.

Guess what? "Guess what has four feet and a long hairy nose?"

Inventory questions: "Yesterday, what did you have for breakfast?"

Yes or no: "The sky is yellow".

Follow my directions: "Crawl under the table...move two steps to the left...sit on the chair..."

Quote of the week:

The Easter egg symbolizes our ability to break out of the hardened, protective shell we've surrounded ourselves with..."

Have a great weekend,

Ms. Laura, Ms. Andrea
