Dear Parents of VPK,

This week, we traveled to France, Oh la la!

We started locating France on a map and on a globe. They learned that the capital of France is Paris and they speak French. Their flag is a tricolor of vertical bands of equal width of blue, white, and red. We also talked about the Eiffel Tower which is the tallest building about the same height as an 81 story building.

For art, the children traced and colored the flag and the map of France with the different regions. They also traced the capital letter F, for France and colored it with the flag colors. We talked about some French words that are used in English such as ballet, garage, art, collage, and machine. We practiced saying Bonjour (good day) every day during Circle Time.

We all had a great time in soccer with Coach Jackie. They did potato bag races, played Sharks and Minnows, and played with soccer balls.

Books we read:

Just a Little Bit by Ann Tompert

Bear Says Thanks by Karma Wilson

Ruthie and the (Not So) Teeny Tiny Lie by Laura Rankin

The Very Cranky Bear by Nick Bland

Monsters Love Underpants by Claire Freedman

There Was an Old Dragon by Penny Parker

Quote of the week:

Attract what you expect, reflect what you desire, become what you respect, mirror what you admire. -Princess Michelle Ann Haugo-

Have a great weekend,
