

Dedicated to comforting children in foster care!

Meet Rachel, our new Blanket Angel Volunteer Coordinator

We are pleased to introduce Rachel Curtis, our new Blanket Angel Volunteer Coordinator. She joined the MVOB volunteer team this year to provide a point of contact for our Blanket Angel Coordinators.

Serving as Blanket Angel Volunteer Coordinator gives her the opportunity to combine several of her favorite things: sewing/crafting, caring for children, and organizing. In this role, she will be the go-to contact for Blanket Angels across the country. She's gotten her family involved, too. Everyone helped tie blankets while enjoying Christmas movies over the holiday.

Rachel grew up and lives in Central Ohio and is thrilled to be part of the MVOB family. In her "day job," she manages customer relationships and leads operations teams for a global technology expense management company. In her spare time, she bakes, sews, and spends way too much money on craft store sales. An avid sports fan, Rachel is a season ticket holder for the Cincinnati Reds and can also often be seen cheering for The Ohio State Buckeyes.

Rachel will be reaching out to each of you over the next few months to offer help, encouragement – and thanks! We hope to strengthen our connection to you and make sure you know how much we appreciate what you are doing for children in foster care in your area.
