

Maryland Heritage Areas Authority (MHAA) Winter Workshops for FY2021 MHAA Grants

Is your non-profit or government entity seeking funding for a project that will protect and celebrate Maryland's unique history, cultural traditions, or natural resources? Are you developing a project that will create heritage tourism or education opportunities?

If you answered "YES," please join us at one of the FREE workshops or webinars listed here.

Tuesday, January 7, 2020 - 10:30 am to 12:30 pm

Location: Garrett College in Mchenry, MD

Learn more and register to attend: <https://garrett-mhaa.brownpapertickets.com>

Wednesday, January 8, 2020 - 12:00 noon to 2:30 pm

Location: Regency Stadium in Waldorf, MD

Learn more and register to attend: <https://charles-mhaa.brownpapertickets.com>

Friday, January 10, 2020 - 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm

Location: Westminster Library in Westminster, MD

Learn more and register to attend: <https://carroll-mhaa.brownpapertickets.com>

Monday, January 13, 2020 - 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm

Location: Maryland Historical Trust in Crownsville, MD

Learn more and register to attend: <https://crownsville-mhaa.brownpapertickets.com>

Wednesday, January 15, 2020 - 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm

Location: Dorchester Center for the Arts in Cambridge, MD

Learn more and register to attend: <https://dorchester-mhaa.brownpapertickets.com>

Friday January 17, 2020 - 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm

Location: Washington College in Chestertown, MD

Learn more and register to attend: <https://kent-mhaa.brownpapertickets.com>

Webinar 1: December 19 - 10:30 am - Register: <https://bit.ly/mhaa12-19>

Webinar 2: January 27 - 1:30 pm - Register: <https://bit.ly/mhaa01-27>

A recorded webinar will also be available for viewing.

Questions? Call us at 410-697-9555

Or email ennis.smith@maryland.gov