About Eagle Investment Group

Ashland University's finance program is among the finest in the country. Since its inception in 2000, the Eagle Investment Group (EIG) has matched or outperformed the S&P 500 most years on an aggregate (risk-adjusted) basis with a value over $1.4 million (2017). EIG has a unique tradition of being solely managed by students.

The annual EIG Golf Outing raises funds to continue providing our talented finance majors with software, technology and experiential education (travel, etc.) to maintain Eagle Investment Group's status as a cutting-edge, top-performing program. As a result, Ashland University's finance graduates will continue to "Walk Down Wall Street with Anyone."
