

An Evening with

CATHI MUCKLE:

Singing Selections from the Songbook of

George & Ira Gershwin

As part of AU's Homecoming celebration, Ashland University will host a tribute concert that will take the audience back to another era with the most memorable songs of "The Greatest Generation."

The concert will feature Cathi Muckle, the daughter of Betty Clooney, who is Rosemary Clooney's sister. Muckle, a professional singer and educator who lives in Las Vegas, actually toured with her legendary aunt and even recorded "The Coffee Song" with Rosemary Clooney.

OCTOBER 13, 2017 | 7:30 p.m.
MYERS CONVOCATION CENTER
ASHLAND UNIVERSITY

The event is open to the public and general admission tickets for the event are $10 for adult and $5 for senior citizens, students and AU employees. In addition, a VIP package at $25 per ticket will include a 6:30 p.m. private upscale cocktail reception with the artist. Sales of the limited number of VIP packages will end Oct. 6.

Those with questions or wanting tickets can contact the AU Box Office at 419.289.5125 or go online at ashland.edu/tickets. Doors for the concert open at 7 p.m. and a cash bar will be available at the event.
