

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. WEEK OF SERVICE AND LEARNING

MONDAY, JANUARY 16TH

NAACP March

11:45 a.m., Meet at Rawlings Library

CSU Pueblo faculty, staff, and students are invited to participate!
Box lunches will be provided.

Guest Speakers and Community Clean Up

1:15 p.m., El Pueblo History Museum

Participate in a community trash clean up in the area surrounding El Pueblo History Museum or assist with handing out food and toiletry baskets prepared by RMSER. Gloves, vests, and other supplies will be provided for volunteers.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17TH

Donuts and Drinks: Serving Our Community in Honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

9 - 11 a.m., OSC Fireplace Lounge

Enjoy a free donut with Student Engagement and Leadership and learn about the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and the importance of serving others from The Center for International Programs and Inclusive Excellence.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18TH

Lunch in the Pack Cafe: "Eat Like a Civil Rights Activist"

11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m., Pack Cafe

Join CSU Pueblo students, faculty and staff in a conversation with community members about volunteerism and services within the Pueblo Community while enjoying and learning about some of Dr. King's favorite foods.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19TH

University Round Table Discussion: "Social Justice and the Status of America Today"

5:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m., OSC Fireplace Lounge

The CSU Pueblo Black Students Union, Pueblo NAACP, and representatives from CSU Pueblo and the community discuss social justice during a public panel discussion. Heavy hors d'oeuvres will be served.