MIRROR MONDAYS SPEAKERS NEEDED!

Join us for an enriching experience at Mirror Monday Discussions!

Seeking dedicated faculty or staff who have firsthand experience as first-generation college student, transfer student, Undocumented student, former foster youth, formerly incarcerated student, or a student with disabilities to generously share their valuable insights and personal stories with our current students. Topics include how you navigated through higher education, career exploration, lived experiences, and the unique assets and strengths you bring to the table.

These sessions create a supportive platform for students, faculty, and staff with similar backgrounds to connect, learn, and grow together.
