Escape Ranch is a privately owned, non-commercial recreational property with a rich history of quail hunting and land stewardship. Since 2005, Tall Timbers has intensely studied the population ecology of wild bobwhites and their responses to land management choices at the Ranch. The relationship between Escape Ranch and Tall Timbers has grown to benefit management for additional declining wildlife species and expand Tall Timbers’ capacity to consult with Central Florida landowners on science-based management for quail, biodiversity, and wildfire resilience.
