

Ad Hoc Neighborhood Engagement & NAC Committee

Summary List of Topic Submissions

- Structural Organization & Functions
  - What is the purpose of a NAC?
  - What is the role of the NAC Coordinator?
  - How are NAC meetings conducted?
  - What is the current status of NACs?
  - Review of current NAC Boundaries.
  - Determine if the NACs should focus on community concerns impacting the confines of the NAC or City wide. (Narrow vs Broad)
  - Review the current police reporting function (crime report) and determine how best to inform residents of crime and reporting of concerns in NACs.
  - Review City NAC funding and where the NACs fit within the City structure.
  - What role if any do HOAs play in NACs?
- Internal Controls
  - Elected NAC Coordinators VS Appointed NAC Coordinators
  - How to create a consistent NAC experience for residents?
  - How often to meet, virtual v. physical location?
  - How to share best practices
  - How to share concerns between the NACs; city departments and elected officials?
  - Explore how to establish a NAC tracking system within the City to track requests.
  - How to improve the NAC agenda...what should be added? More items from city departments?
- Power vs Advisory Role
  - Determine if the NAC should be an arm (Department) within the City or an independent advisory committee.
  - What authority/role does the NAC have regarding development as it relates to the City's Land Management Code?
  - How are community concerns reported to elected officials as it relates to development and City planning?
  - Elected officials' objective for NAC program
  - Establish NACs as 1st recipients of any new construction application, i.e., requiring a pre-application review for any new construction in the City
  - Re-establish NACs as described in IV.(A) of the original NAC Resolution 12-05, i.e.
- Marketing & Communication
  - Getting more resident involvement

Ad Hoc Neighborhood Engagement & NAC Committee

- Increased means of communication
- Ways to expand the level of NAC participation throughout the City
- Having NACs as collaborative partners with the City with two-way communication
- Requiring at least monthly communication between City and NACs
- Establishing City-NAC-FNP update calendar
- Interim community engagement plan (this assumes a transition from NAC to something else)
- Engagement, Listening, Communication, Community Building
- Other Topics of Interest
  - Consideration of adding benches to bus stops
  - Housing Affordability
  - Housing and houselessness
  - Walkability/Pedestrian and bike safety
  - Promoting low carbon energy and energy efficiency