Pastor's Page

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

After a brief hiatus for a couple of weeks while I was out of action and away from the parish due to my recent eye surgery and recuperation, I have returned to active duty, but am still in "Catch-up Mode" as I tend to things that piled up during my absence somewhat. It is good to be back, and I am grateful for the many prayers and expressions of support and encouragement that OLG parishioners and staff members offered on my behalf. They really did help to get me through.

The eye-surgery was successful, but it did leave me looking like I had been on the losing side of a drunken bar brawl. (I want to assure you that I was NOT drunk!) Seriously, the bruising, swelling and blood-shot appearance that I had following the surgery was much more pronounced than I expected, and lasted a good deal longer than I thought it would. However, day by day and bit by bit the healing has improved, and my post-op meeting with the surgeon went extremely well, with him telling me that I need not come back to see him again until August.

And so, it is back to the future for me as, with all of you, I move forward with the celebrations of Trinity Sunday, Corpus Christ and the Masses of the summer period of Ordinary Time approaching and upon us. In addition, we are anticipating some degree of change in the features of our public Masses here at OLG as the numbers of those having received their COVID vaccinations increases. What this will look like in specific detail is not yet known, but as we receive instruction and guidance from our civil authorities and from our Catholic bishops we will pass them on to you and begin to implement them with you. Everyone's safety continues to be our prime concern, but we do want to take advantage of whatever options and permissions are given to us. We also want to make sure that, as we move forward, we do so in ways that are both charitable and mutually supportive. More to come on this as we are given the guidelines and practices to follow.

In closing, I wish to extend my sincerest congratulations and esteem to all the students and educators here at OLG—the 8th graders at OLG School, the seniors at our Catholic and our public high schools, and any college students completing their degree programs, together with all the teachers and administrators who have assisted and mentored them in the studies they undertook this year. This COVID year has been especially challenging, to say the least, but it appears as if you have faced it and gotten through it in ways that give you credit. My applause and my prayers are offered for you all.

God bless you—each and all,

Fr. Kevin

Open Wide Our Hearts

Summer Series

As a Pentecost people, during the summer, we will be introducing a wonderful series entitled "Everyone Belongs" from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and in Partnership with Loyola Press and illustrated by Kristin Sorra. In the book "Everyone Belongs" the story of Ray and Sam introduces several topics, including racial discrimination and anti-immigrant feelings. As these subjects may be difficult to discuss, children can be participially adept at understanding that Jesus calls all people to be treated with dignity. As part of this series, we invite you as parents and guardians to read the pastoral letter from the U.S. bishops, Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love.

Jesus gave us a great example of how to love one another. He asks us to love every person the way he does. Showing love to each other is another way of showing how we follow Jesus. To learn more about Open Wide Our Hearts: A Pastoral Letter Against Racism visit www.usccb.org/racism

Children's Prayer: We Are All in God's Image

Loving Father,

Thank you for the many beautiful colors and languages of the world and for making all your children unique.

Thank you for creating me in your image.
Thank you for loving me and making me wonderful.
Help me share your love
With all the children you have made,
For they are unique and wonderful.
Amen

Reflection Activity:

As a family, talk to your children about how Jesus loved everyone. Discuss the people in your family, friends, and church community who you love.

How do you feel when you spend time with people you love? How do we show respect for our friends, family and others and how do we celebrate what makes each of us unique, as well as what makes us the same?

Family Faith Formation

Sheepish Question:

Crustaceans aside, to whom does Jesus send me, specifically?

This Week's Readings at Mass

It's Okay to Be Conflicted

- Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40 - Proofs of God's love
- Romans 8:14-17 - Children of God through adoption
- Matthew 28:16-20 - Commission of the Apostles

Questions of the Week

1. Has there been a time(s) when you have doubted Jesus, God, or your faith? What brought you through that period?
2. Think about a time when you have experienced a sense of God or Jesus with you. Say a prayer of thanksgiving for that gift of awareness.

DAY
JUNE 14
Bloodworks Northwest

GIVE BLOOD.

Our Lady of Guadalupe is partnering with Bloodworks Northwest to host a virtual drive!

Here's how it works: Visit any Bloodworks Northwest fixed site (donor center) or temporary site (pop-up) that is conveniently located near you between Tuesday June 1 and Tuesday June 15 and when you arrive, check in (register) under donor code OLOG. We ask you to provide this code when you arrive, so the blood center can track our impact! Help us reach a goal of finding 25 folks to attend over the two-week period! Please note: The pop-up at LDS West Seattle (4001 44th Ave SW) coincides with our virtual drive!

Please sign up HERE!

Your donation (during this 2 week time frame) will help recoup blood collections losses from the Memorial holiday weekend when typically donations are low.

Our virtual drive also coincides with WORLD DONOR DAY on June 14!

Never tried blood donation? Watch this video to see what a simple and rewarding process, giving blood is!

Masks and appointments are required at all donation sites. Walk-ins, guests or anyone under 16 years of age are (unfortunately) not permitted. Have questions or need help booking an appointment? Please call 1-800-398-7888 or e-mail schedule@bloodworksnw.org

Giving blood during the pandemic is a safe and essential action. For more info on how Bloodworks is keeping donors and staff safe, by abiding by all CDC, FDA and WA State Department of Health guidelines please visit:

Support Immigrants in our Community

Join St. James Cathedral Immigrant GroopIt, an on-line platform to connect with and support immigrants. As a member of their GroopIt, you’ll see requests for specific needs (i.e. a ride to the doctor, furniture, meals, help setting up a TV, etc.) If you are available to help, it is easy to respond to get all the information you need. In addition, you will see posts about events, advocacy alerts, and immigration-related news. You will also be able to connect to others who are concerned with justice for immigrants. Email Chris at ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org to get instructions for joining if you have any questions.

LEARN

Catholic Relief Services: Providing Water in Rwanda

CRS has been working with USAID to help our brothers and sisters in Rwanda get access to clean water. In one village, USAID and CRS have dug 61 boreholes in 7 districts that provide water close by. That means children, often responsible for collecting water, are not at risk of missing school or not having enough time for homework. In addition, CRS installed two solar-powered deep wells in the Kayonza and Ngoma Districts, powering the delivery of clean, safe drinking water in those villages. Visit www.crs.org to see how you can help contribute!

A Matter of Spirit: Education Equity

The Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center’s recent journal, A Matter of Spirit (AMOS), focuses on Education Equity, reflecting on how Covid-19 has impacted the education system, especially our educators and students. Hear educators and a student discuss the current reality of education and consider pathways towards a more just and equitable system. Read or listen to the latest issue at <https://www.ipjc.org/a-matter-of-spirit/> AMOS is a quarterly justice journal with analysis, theological reflection, and action on justice issues.

Climate Change is an Environmental Justice Issue

Climate change threatens everyone’s health, air, water, food, and shelter, but Black, Indigenous, and communities of color (BIPOC) face the greatest risks. Extreme weather events such as hurricanes, floods, droughts, and wildfire, as well as poor air quality and pollution, all have a disproportionate impact on communities of color, low-income communities, and other vulnerable groups such as children, elders, and farmworkers. We can all assess our own role in climate change and begin to take action on climate justice. Visit <https://www3.epa.gov/carbon-footprint-calculator/> to calculate the size of your carbon footprint and learn how to reduce your household’s impact.

Thanks From The Bees!

Last month Walmart announced a landmark pollinator health policy that will work to protect bees and other pollinators essential to one in three bites of food. This success is the result of collaboration, time, patience and persistence. In 2019, Northwest Coalition for Responsible Investment (ipjc.org/nwcri) and Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility shareholders joined Friends of the Earth in advocating with Walmart to be a leader in the safer management of pesticides and other hazardous agrochemicals. Join them in calling on the other 24 largest grocery stores to Bee Friendly too (<https://foe.org/take-action/>)!

Spring is the best time to plant a vegetable garden. Consider planting extra so you can donate fresh produce to the West Seattle Food Bank. Also, intersperse some native plants to help attract pollinators.

"Into the Breach" Video Series

Presented by the Knights of Columbus

Wednesday Evenings at 7:00 p.m. via Zoom

Following is the topic schedule:

June 2 - Life

June 9 - Prayer

June 16 - Suffering

As defenders of the faith, the Knights of Columbus look to help Catholic men deepen their faith while keeping their commitments to their families. Each video in the series is 8-12 minutes and addresses the challenges to the faith that men face. While the content is directed to men, spouses are also invited to the viewing and discussion. Brian Callanan will be leading the discussion of several of the videos and we are looking at having other guests be host as well.

A page on the website has been created for this video series. Please take a moment to look at the page and play the sample trailer video to get an idea of what this is about. # From The Pastoral Center

This is an exciting time of year when all parishes are working together to accomplish what cannot be done alone! Every gift, no matter the amount, is gratefully appreciated and vital if we are to make our goal of $76,228. The important thing is that your household participate in some way in this year's Appeal.

If you have already made your gift to the Appeal, thank you! If not, please return your pledge envelope today or donate online at www.seattlearchdiocese.org/donate Please note you are an OLG parishioner when pledging or giving.

Can your gift be doubled? Many companies MATCH gifts to the Annual Catholic Appeal! Check if your employer has a Matching Gift program and help our parish maximize the Annual Catholic Appeal Rebate! Once your payment has been received OR pledge has been paid in full, you can apply for the match per your employer's instructions. (tax ID# 91-0778147)

A special thank you to Helen Oesterle and Alice Heron who provided a personal witness as to how your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal Campaign supports over 60 ministries and services in the Archdiocese as well as our own ministry here at Our Lady of Guadalupe.
