People of the Past

Remember our Veterans Monday, November 11th

"Each month this year, I have selected people from the past in this segment of our newsletter. I have enjoyed researching the lives of those people. I hope our library patrons have enjoyed reading about them as well. It was difficult this month to choose one veteran to honor. So many from our area have served our country or have made the ultimate sacrifice. I encourage our readers to take the time to visit the Boone County Courthouse square. There you can view the monuments that honor our veterans. Also, visit the Genealogy Department and discover many fascinating stories of those that served in our military."

Tina Farmer, Boone County Library Genealogist

Boone County Genealogy Department

Hours are Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. 870-741-5913

Boone County Genealogical Society meetings are held at the library the second Thursday of each month at 5:30 p.m.

Community members are welcome.

The Boone County Library enjoyed being a part of Harrison's "Scare on the Square." Our staff and volunteers were outside the library passing out candy and socks to area trick-or-treaters. Socks you say? Yes! Bombas, a sock company based out of the United States, works with shelters, nonprofits, and organizations dedicated to helping the homeless, in-need, and at-risk communities. For every one pair their customers purchase, one pair is sent out to be given to those who need them most. Our library is one of over 2,500 yearly giving partners across the U.S. We see, first hand, the needs of our patrons, and wanted to give back this year. We hope to work more with Bombas in the future. If your company, organization, or non-profit would like to get involved in giving back, visit www.bombas.com/pages/giving-back

The Boone County Library
will be closed Monday, Nov 11

The Boone County Library
