BCL KINDNESS PANTRY

is located beside the book drop near the parking lot and is in need of food donations. Upon observation, it is noted that folks who are using this pantry need ready-to-eat meals. Cans with pop top openings are preferred. Please help us to help the less fortunate. You may also donate children's diapers and other household items.

Take what you need!
Leave what you can!

4-25-19 Author Talk – Phillip Douglas Howerton, author of "The Literature of the Ozarks: An Anthology" (Ozarks Studies)
About Howerton's book: The job of regional literature is twofold: to explore and confront the culture from within, and to help define that culture for outsiders. Taken together, the two centuries of Ozarks literature collected in this ambitious anthology do just that. The fiction, nonfiction, poetry, and drama presented in The Literature of the Ozarks complicate assumptions about back woods ignorance, debunk the pastoral myth, expand on the meaning of wilderness, and position the Ozarks as a crossroads of human experience with meaningful ties to national literary movements.

4-30-19 Painting with Jean: Lovely Ladybugs! First come/first serve! 24 seats available.

Happy 150th Birthday, Boone County!

Happy 150th Birthday, Boone County! Boone County was created April 9, 1869 from a large part of Carroll County and a narrow strip of Marion County. Boone County contains 604 square miles. Harrison was incorporated in 1876. Some Boone County townships were established long before the county was created: Bear Creek, Crooked Creek, Long Creek, and Sugarloaf, just to name a few. To learn more fascinating history of our county visit the BCL Genealogy Department.

Mrs. Tina Farmer, Boone County Library Genealogist, has office hours Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. 870-741-5913

Boone County Genealogical Society Meetings are held the 2nd Thursday of each month at the library at 5:30 pm. Community members are welcome. April's meeting will be held in the Genealogy Department.
