

The Universal Christ

by Richard Rohr

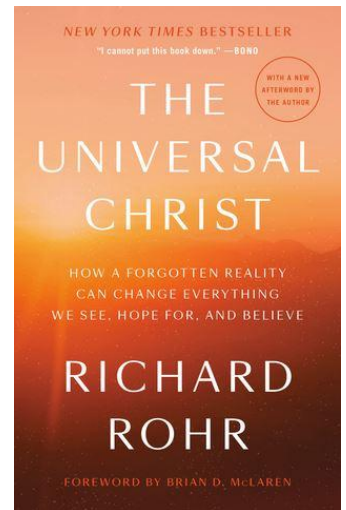

Join us for a dialogue in Divine Presence

Facilitated by Peggy Alderman

& Samuel

Thursdays starting March 18 – May 21, 2026

6 - 7:30 pm at the Hermitage

Over eight sessions we will explore The Universal Christ by Richard Rohr, using the companion guide designed for group reflection and spiritual practice. This gathering is not simply a discussion of ideas, but a shared journey into a deeper awareness of Christ as present in all things — in creation, in one another, and in our own lived experience.

Through conversation, contemplation, and guided reflection, we will engage the text in a way that invites both insight and transformation.

Whether you are rooted in Christian tradition or simply curious about a more expansive understanding of divine love, this circle offers a welcoming space to listen deeply, speak honestly, and discover together what it means to live from the presence of the Universal Christ.

Class Dates:
