

Energize Delaware also has energy conservation workshops and energy saving kits that may be of help to residents as well as other resources. You do have to work through Energize Delaware directly for income qualifications for their services.

Residential

<https://www.energizedelaware.org/residential/>

Nonresidential

<https://www.energizedelaware.org/nonresidential/>

Workshops

<https://www.energizedelaware.org/hec2/energy-conservation-workshops/>

Energy Counseling

<https://www.energizedelaware.org/hec2/one-on-one-energy-counseling/>

In Home Energy Check Up

<https://www.energizedelaware.org/hec2/in-home-energy-check-up-and-counseling/>

Energy Resources Websites:

America Saves

[https://americasaves.org/resource-center/insights/12-ways-to-save-energy-and-money/?gclid=EAlaIQobChMI4p\_I tqOi3wIVxFqGCh2XSQiaEAAYASAAEgLhX\_D\_BwE](https://americasaves.org/resource-center/insights/12-ways-to-save-energy-and-money/?gclid=EAlaIQobChMI4p_I tqOi3wIVxFqGCh2XSQiaEAAYASAAEgLhX_D_BwE)

Energy.gov

<https://www.energy.gov/energysaver/energy-saver>

Energystar.gov

<https://www.energystar.gov/campaign/home?s=mega>