

FGFOA Member Spotlight: Elizabeth Walters

For the last 21 years, Elizabeth Walter, CGFO has served as the Budget & Grants Manager for the South Florida Regional Transportation Authority (SFRTA), better known as Tri-Rail. She oversees the operating & capital budget processes from start to finish as well as monitoring and adjusting them throughout the year. Elizabeth also administers the agency's Transit Asset Program (TAMP) and is responsible for reporting to the Federal National Transit Database (NTD).

A graduate of Stockton University and straight out of college, Elizabeth began her career in government with Atlantic County in Atlantic City New Jersey, where she spent 4 years as an accountant and another 4 years as a budget analyst before moving to Florida. She has been an active member of both the GFOA and FGFOA since 2007, and has served as a committee member, a sub-chair, and for the last 4 years, the Chairperson for the SOGF.

A Reflection on My FGFOA Journey

One of the most important things that has come out of being an active member of the FGFOA, is the incredible amount of knowledge available, the networking ability, and most of all are the wonderful people and incredible friendships that I have made over the last 19 years. I wouldn't change a thing!
