

Tenth Sunday After Pentecost

July 29, 2018 11:00 am

Feeding the multitude is a miracle. Who would have guessed that so little can satisfy so many? Five loaves and two fish show the ways of God's economy, that what is needed will be provided. Indeed, there is more than enough, and what is left is gathered. Another day will come, and there will be more people to feed. Jesus knows the reality of God's encompassing care; there will be sufficient for today and enough for tomorrow.

Prelude "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" (arr. Whitworth)
