

WELCOME, FAREWELL TO OUR INTERN

Please join us in welcoming Brittany Cobb and bidding farewell to Alex Jeffers as the Capital Area Regional Planning Commission's Intern. Brittany is earning a dual Master's in Water Resources Management and Biological Systems Engineering. She is excited to join our team working on regional news updates and water quality planning.

Alex is taking his talents out to Whatcom County, Washington where he will be a Conservation Easement Specialist at the Whatcom Land Trust. He will be working on the conservation of shoreline, old growth forests, and agricultural lands. Good Luck, Alex!
