Presbytery' s Committee on Representation & Diversity

Invites You to Four Sessions in October

nccj | Diversity 101 Series

Led on Zoom by Adriane Miller,

Of the National Conference for Community and Justice of Greater Dayton

Thursday, October 5, 6:30 P.M.—8:30 P.M.

Implicit Bias: Understanding Multicultural Diversity

Where does implicit bias come from? Why do I have this bias? How do I expand my understanding of cultures other than my own? Our training will answer these questions and more about the paths we have taken and the personal experiences that have shaped us.

Thursday, October 12, 6:30 P.M.—8:30 P.M.

Inclusive Leadership

Are you an inclusive leader? Would you like to learn more about inclusive leadership to add to your toolbox? This lively and interactive program will provide an understanding of the importance of being an inclusive leadership.

Thursday, October 19, 6:30 P.M.—8:30 P.M.

Understanding Privilege and the Responsibility of Being an Ally

What privilege do you carry in your backpack? This workshop will help participants identify how privilege may have unknowingly played a role in their life experience.

Thursday, October 26, 6:30 P.M.—8:30 P.M.

Social Change: Where do I fit?

What side of history do you want to be on? This interactive workshop will help prepare you to address the current social movement and push for racial equity.

These sessions are free, paid for by the Rep. & Diversity Committee funds. May we all grow together as we acquire new insights and skills so that we can make our Presbytery and world as diverse as the colors of a rainbow.

To register, go to: https://miamipresbytery.org/committee-documents/#diversity

For further information, contact either of the Co-Chairs of the Committee on Representation & Diversity, Diane Welborn, don.nowak@miamipresbytery.org or Edward McNulty, myparables2@gmail.com.