Guest Speaker Biographies

Rev. Ruth-Aimee Belonni-Rosario

Rev. Ruth-Aimée Belonni-Rosario is a servant of God committed to educational ministry in all its variety. Her ministry spaces include seminaries, college, secondary school, congregations, non-profit organizations, conferences and events, and hospitals. As a lifelong presbyterian, with 18 years of ordained ministry as a Teaching Elder, Ruth-Aimée has also served the PCUSA in many capacities from congregational ministry to mid-governing to the national level working with multiple committees, programs, and initiatives. She has written several articles and presented at various events as a panelist, leading workshops, and facilitating conversations. Ruth-Aimée has enjoyed her work in accompanying, developing, ascending, and honoring the vocational journey of many. She has been blessed by the stories of all she encountered solidifying her commitment to love, kindness, humility, justice, peace, and compassion. She loves the beach, reading, sports, food, learning and spending quality time with loved ones.

Alexis Lambright

Alexis Lambright (she/her) is a social worker/therapist based in New York City. She attained a Master of Science in Social Work from Columbia University School of Social Work in 2018. Since receiving her Master's-level social work license, Alexis has served in community mental health, hospitals, K-12 schools, and teletherapy settings, providing trauma-informed care to children, youth, and families across the New York City metro area. In addition to social work, Alexis is a comedy performer and voice actor.

Alexis grew up attending College Hill Community Presbyterian Church, becoming a member at age 12, with active involvement in the youth group for many years. Although she is not that same shy kid who came to life whilst performing liturgical dance during Sunday services, at her core she is still very much the same!

Hebrews 10:24-25

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.
